

Dinosaur Detectives

Maths

Place Value within 20

Addition and Subtractions within 20

History

Studying dinosaurs to understand events beyond living memory

The Lives of Significant Individuals in History - Mary Anning

Science

Working Scientifically

Animals Including Humans - Characteristics of dinosaurs, identifying dinosaurs through their similarities and difference.

Plants - What do Dinosaurs eat?

Music

Understanding music, listen and respond, learning to sing, instrumental learning, improvisation, composition, performance.

Geography

Similarities and Differences between the UK and Non-European Countries.

Studying where dinosaurs lived and identifying them on a map.

RE

What is a Muslim and what do they believe?

Computing

Coding

PSHE

Cleanliness, fairness and friendliness.

DT

Dinosaur junk models

Role Play Area - Archaeological Dig

PE

Swimming, fitness, team building and large apparatus.

Art

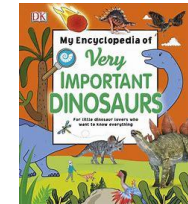

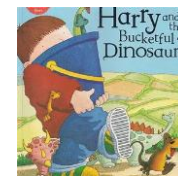

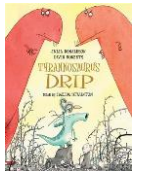

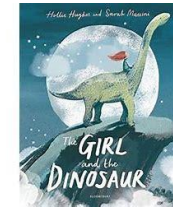

Playful making - Dinosaurs

RSE

Respectful relationships

English

Key Texts

Information text writing.

Adventure story writing.

Descriptive postcard writing.

Spelling

a-e, i-e, o-e, u-e, wh

Grammar

Alphabet, verbs, present tense, past tense, the doubling rule, verbs in the future

Phonics

Revise all sounds

Guided Reading

Segmenting, Blending, Fluency, Tricky words, Expression, Comprehension.